

Old Fashioned Fish and Chips climbs aboard with Club Newlands

Club Newlands, the official supporters club of Vodacom Stormers and Western Province, is pleased to announce its newest sponsor, Old Fashioned Fish and Chips.

Old Fashioned Fish and Chips was created by Emilia de Souza in 2001, in the image of her late uncle Alfredo's classic old-style fish-and-chips stores throughout South Africa. The mission of Old Fashioned Fish and Chips is to bring back the old corner fish-and-chips shop that we all loved, but with the added warmth of a smile, and great service, quality and pricing.

The organisation is one of the fastest-growing franchises in southern Africa, having recently opened its 100th store in Strand Street in Cape Town's CBD. Vodacom WP stars such as skipper Anton Van Zyl, scrumhalf Dewaldt Duvenage and prop Brok Harris celebrated this momentous achievement.

On match days, fans who visit the Castle Lawns at Club Newlands will be able to enjoy delicious Old Fashioned Fish and Chips as they get ready to watch a big clash. Thank-you to Old Fashioned Fish and Chips, who through this official partnership with Western Province Rugby are helping Club Newlands to bring fans even closer to all things rugby.

If you would like to hire the Castle Lawns at Club Newlands or the Club Newlands lounge please call 021 685 3333.
